

To whom it may concern

Adrian Costea is part of our history we're building now (www.visib.com - a new era in social network) because he is the creator of our logo and brand manual in a very professional and satisfactory way.

He is very serious about his work, giving his best no matter the conditions of the contract, simply because he loves his job. I rarely see such commitment and great work in detail and without no doubt we'll work with him again if we need it.

Please feel free to contact me for any further details if you need.

Yours,
